

As a truckdriver, XM gives me instant information that I can't get anywhere else no matter where I'm at. I have been able to route myself around accidents, and plan my day according to the weather. Without XM Satellite, I was losing stations constantly as I drove across the country. I think XM radio has the potential of making the highways safer.